

Dhotee khol vichhaa-ay hayth

gaWl mhl w 5] (201-2)	ga-or ^h ee mehlaa 5.	Gauree, Fifth Mehl:
DqI KiI ivCweyhjT]	Dhotee khol vichhaa-ay hayth .	He opens his loin-cloth, and spreads it out beneath him.
grDp vlgU I whypjt]1]	garD ^h hap vaa ^N goo laahay payt. 1	Like a donkey, he gulps down all that comes his way. 1 ibnu krqql mikiq n pweIAI]	bin kartootee mukat _t na paa-ee-ai.	Without good deeds, liberation is not obtained.
mikiq pdwrQu nwmu iDAweIAI]1] rhwau]	mukat _t padaarath naam Dhi -aa-ee-ai. 1 rahaa-o.	The wealth of liberation is only obtained by meditating on the Naam, the Name of the Lord. 1 Pause pj w iql k krq iesnwnW]	poojaa tilak karat _t isnaanaa ^N .	He performs worship ceremonies, applies the ceremonial tilak mark to his forehead, and takes his ritual cleansing baths;
CrI kwiF I yVhiQ dwnw]2]	chhuree kaadh layvai hath daanaa . 2	he pulls out his knife, and demands donations. 2
bdupVmiK mITi buxl]	bayd parhai muk ^h meet ^h ee banee.	With his mouth, he recites the Vedas in sweet musical measures, j IAW khq n sljY prwXl]3]	jee-aa ^N kuhat _t na sangai paraane. 3	and yet he does not hesitate to take the lives of others. 3
khunwk ij suikrpw DwrY]	kaho naanak jis kirpaa Dha arai.	Says Nanak, when God showers His Mercy, ihrdw sDu bhmu blcwrY]4]107]	hir ^d aa su Dh barahm beecharai. 4 107	even his heart becomes pure, and he contemplates God. 4 107