

*"We don't want any other innocent people hurt."
- the family of Balbir Singh*

Balbir was beloved by all his community as these signs and flowers left in his tribute reveal.

On Saturday, September 15, 2001, Balbir Singh Sodhi,
a Sikh, was shot in Mesa, Arizona
while planting flowers in front of his shop.
In the tradition of the Sikhs, he wore a turban and beard.
He was killed simply because of the way he looked.

Sikhs believe:

- ★ In One God
- ★ That all religious paths lead to God
- ★ That all people are equal in the eyes of God
- ★ In peace, and love for humankind

Contributions to the Balbir Singh Sodhi Memorial Fund: Bank One, Arizona, Account #1308-8566
For more information call: 602-288-1550, E-mail: BalbirSingh@sikhnet.com
web site: www.sikhnet.com